

DELEGATION OF POWER OF ATTORNEY

In order to declare works to the Sacem repertoire, bulletins and any support documents (publishing and rights-assignment contracts, audiovisual adaptation contracts, technical sheets, tec.) must be signed either by a legal representative (case of publishers) or by the physical person listed with the Trade & Commerce Register (case of publishers doing business in their own name).

Note however, that legal representatives for publishers can, in the name and on behalf of their publisher, delegate power of attorney to a person of their choice.

To authorise a given person to declare works to the Sacem repertoire, in the name and on behalf a publisher, please complete the form shown below.

I, THE UNDERSIGNED : .....

ACTING IN MY CAPACITY AS LEGAL REPRESENTATIVE FOR THE PUBLISHER (name and address) :

HEREBY DELEGATE TO : .....

The power to make, in the name and on behalf of the above-mentioned publisher, all and any declarations of work to the Société des Auteurs, Compositeurs et Editeurs de Musique (Sacem) and to sign any documents which may be required to effect these declarations and any other support documents required, including publishing and rights-assignment contracts.

Unless and until the above power of delegation is retracted, said retraction signalled to the Sacem by means of an e-mail (sent to : juridique.societaires@sacem.fr) or a registered letter with acknowledgement of receipt, this delegation of power is granted for as long as the person receiving this delegation exercises his/her professional functions for the aforementioned publisher.
